OUR COMMITMENTS - 1

Benevolence

Quality education, differentiated instruction with adapted material

to allow all children to progress at their own pace

Latvian lessons from MS class

- once a week for MS
- 3 times a week for GS

OUR COMMITMENTS - 2

Extra French lessons from MS with FLSco teacher

- for children in need
- in small groups
- during school time

After-class teacher's help

- for children in need
- in small groups

OUR COMMITMENTS - 3

Close collaboration with parents

- for the first two years at school, a time of welcome and a gradual integration of the children with their parents in the classroom
- an adapted start to the school year for children in need

YOUR COMMITMENTS - 1

Bring your kids to school

Ensure everyday attendance

- repeated absences slow the children's progress
- repeated absences make it difficult to adapt to the classroom and to school life

Be on time

- delays are disruptive to the child emotionally and in terms of learning
- delays are disruptive to other children who are working

YOUR COMMITMENTS - 2

Confidence

Participate in your child's development

- follow teachers' recommendations
- children must wear suitable clothing for school practice
- don't bring food, candies, medication to school

Contact us, talk to us

YOUR COMMITMENTS - 3

Participate in school life

- parent-teacher elections class representatives
- possibility to join in various commissions (school council, catering, ecology)
- participate and vote for your vision of the future of the school during General Meetings
